Varsha Phal

The sun transits one circle of 360 degrees of the zodiac in a whole year. To analyse the results for a specific year of your life, a horoscope is cast for the time when the Sun in transit reaches exactly where it was at the time of your birth. This horoscope is used to predict events and foretell your life for that particular year. The annual or progressed horoscope is similar to that of the Siderial Solar Return chart in Western Astrology.

Varshaphal is also known as the Tajaka or Tajik system of astrology. Of the many writers, Nilakanta and Kesava are the two great authors who have written elaborately on the Tajik system.

The annual horoscope analysis and predictions given here are based on the principles of the Tajik system. The point called Varshapravesh, is the entry into the new year and has great significance. This is calculated as per the elaborate methods suggested in the ancient texts. The day of the week of your birth, is also considered for Varshapravesh. Apart from the ascendant in the annual chart, called Varsha Lagna other important influences analysed are that of the Muntha, the Lord of Muntha and the Lord of the year.

There are wide differences in rules, for judging a horoscope under the Parasara system and the Varshaphal. The set of rules for aspects and combinations in the two systems are distinct. The strength of the planets are ascertained by Panchavargiya Bala rather than Shadbala, as in the Parasara system.

In the foregoing analysis, you can see that the effects of various factors are sometimes contradictory and at times reinforcing. While some unfavourable influences are neutralised by favourable factors, often you will experience all these at least partially at sometime during the year. An overall judgement of the year ahead is given at the end of each annual forecast.

Please remember that the Varshaphal period covers an entire year from the day of Varshapravesh, which is approximately from one birthday to another.

The predictions given here are indications of the fortunes ahead and you can surely surmount any hard times, by your diligence, will-power and the grace of God.

Muntha is in the first house. This is a favourable position. You will perform well in your career during this phase of your life. You will have prosperity in all that you undertake. Maybe a fresh contract or an overseas trip or even a new post at a club or association await you. You will have many friends and you will make friends out of rivals too. You will be well known and be in better health this year. Your financial problems will minimise or even fade away.

Lord of Muntha

The lord of the house where Muntha is placed is called Munthesh, the Lord of Muntha. The effect of Munthesh is only secondary to that of Muntha.

In this case, while Muntha is placed well, the Lord of Muntha also is in a good position. This reinforces the good effects.

The lord of Muntha is in the second house. For you, this year will bring you some financial prosperity. Your income levels at work could go up. You will enjoy reasonable comforts at home and will be looked after well too. Success will follow any earnest endeavour you pursue at this stage of your life.

Resist the temptation to make money through illegal means and vicious connections. This is not the time to depend too much on other people. You have to do things on your own to reach the targets. Take care against any accidents or diseases. There could be an enhancement of your status, at this stage of your life. It could be at work or even at some club or association. You will have victory over your adverseries. Your hard work will win you prosperity.

Birth Lagna

The position of birth lagna in relation to varsha lagna has special significance.

Birth lagna is the annual third house. During this year, there will be moments when you could display unusual bravery. Your self confidence will go up and this may tempt you to some risky deeds. You will be a well-known man in your community.
